

Will Gardner
Small Business Investor Alliance

Will serves as Director of Government Relations at SBIA, where he is responsible for advancing the association's policies throughout the federal government. He advocates for all SBIA legislative and regulatory matters with Members of Congress and their staffs, as well as with federal regulatory agencies. In addition, Will is the primary contact on tax issues and works with SBIA's Tax and Accounting Committee and its Legal Committee to further the association's tax priorities.

Before joining SBIA, Will served as Staff Director of the Senate Banking Subcommittee on Housing, Transportation, and Community Development and as Legislative Assistant to U.S. Senator Tim Scott (SC). Prior to that, he was a Legislative Assistant to U.S. Rep. Paul Gosar from Arizona. During his time on Capitol Hill, he advised Members on a variety of issues, including banking and financial services, oversight and government reform, judiciary, commerce, transportation, and budget matters. Will holds a B.A. from the University of South Carolina and a J.D. from Liberty University School of Law.
