

Jamie Donelan, Seacoast Capital

Jamie joined Seacoast Capital in 2006. Prior to joining Seacoast, Mr. Donelan worked as an Analyst in the Investment Banking group at Adams Harkness & Hill in Boston, where he focused on public equity, M&A, and PIPE transactions primarily in the consumer sector. His prior work experience includes working in Business Development for EatingWell Magazine, and the corporate finance group of Dunkin' Brands. He received a BA in Economics from Middlebury College and also studied at the London School of Economics.