

Charles A. Cox
LongueVue Capital

As Director of Investments, Charles Cox leads LongueVue Capital's business development activities, including the sourcing, evaluation, and execution of new platform investments and add-on opportunities for existing portfolio companies. An active member of the private equity industry, Charles serves on the Board of Directors of the Southeastern SBIA and Louisiana ACG organizations.

Prior to joining LVC in 2011, Charles was an analyst at Covey Capital and practiced law at Allen, Kopet, & Associates where he specialized in insurance defense representing Fortune 500 companies involving general liability issues. Charles holds a bachelor's degree in History/Pre-Law from the University of Georgia, where he was a Presidential Scholar and recipient of the Hope Scholarship, a JD from Samford University's Cumberland School of Law, and an MBA from the University of North Carolina's Kenan-Flagler School.