

Stacia Kopplin

Chief Risk Officer

NXT Capital

Stacia is responsible for all aspects of NXT Capital's risk management activities which include Loan Review, operational risk management, corporate governance and the company's risk rating models and applications. She manages the information technology, data governance and the loan servicing teams. Stacia is also a member of the Credit Committee.

Most recently, Stacia was NXT's Managing Director of Risk Management, where she was instrumental in developing the company's Loan Review and Risk Management processes. Prior to joining NXT, she was the Director of Risk Management at Merrill Lynch Capital. Stacia also spent 14 years with Heller Financial and GE Capital, where her positions included Senior Vice President of Loan Review, as well as Underwriter, Portfolio Manager and Auditor in the Corporate Finance group.

Stacia holds a B.S. in Accounting from the University of Illinois.