

Kate Price

Winston & Strawn LLP

Kate Price advises clients through the fund formation and capital raising processes and on regulatory compliance and ongoing operational matters, particularly specializing in representing funds in the middle market and lower middle market. The breadth of her experience in this space enables her to provide broad market perspective and efficient counseling to her clients. She has extensive experience working with the SBA throughout the SBIC licensing process and currently has one of the most active SBIC practices in the country. Kate regularly counsels clients on SBIC regulatory restrictions, including representing funds making SBIC-compliant private equity and mezzanine investments in the lower middle market.

Additionally, Kate represents certain institutional limited partners making investments in a wide variety of funds. She also advises both banks and funds in negotiating lines of credits.

Kate received her B.A., with honors, from the University of Kansas where she a recipient of the Whittaker Leadership Award. She earned her J.D. from the University of Iowa College of Law where she was inducted into the Order of the Coif.
