

Stacey Wittelsberger
Patriot Capital

Stacey Wittelsberger joined Patriot Capital in June 2010 and today is responsible for origination, underwriting/execution, portfolio management, and investor relations. Prior to joining Patriot, Stacey worked for Banc of America Securities in the Securitization Finance group (asset backed securities & mortgage-backed securities) from 2008 to 2010. Stacey is on the Board of the Small Business Investor Alliance (SBIA) and was President of the Northeast Region for the SBIA in 2020. Mrs. Wittelsberger is currently Board Chair of the Enoch Pratt Free Library's Pratt Contemporaries organization in Baltimore. Stacey was also previously Co-President of Baltimore Deal Professionals (BDP), a 200+ member organization in Baltimore for young professionals working in the investment banking and private equity industries, from 2010 to 2019. Stacey earned a BS in Finance from Virginia Tech and her MBA from the Loyola University Maryland's Sellinger School of Business.