

William L. (Bill) Tyson
Fifth Third Capital Markets

Bill serves as head of Mergers & Acquisitions within the Investment Banking Group of Fifth Third Capital Markets. He is responsible for assisting with the strategic direction of the M & A and Investment Banking platform within the Capital Markets division of Fifth Third Bank. He is also responsible for driving the Bank's capital markets non-organic growth strategy.

Bill joined the Bank in 2016 after 18 years with BB&T, where he most recently served as senior managing director and co-head of Investment Banking for BB&T Capital Markets (and predecessor, Scott & Stringfellow.) Before that, he was a managing director at Wheat First Butcher Singer. Through his career in investment banking and capital markets, he has completed more than 300 capital financing and M&A advisory assignments.

He earned a bachelor's degree in finance and accounting from the McIntire School of Commerce at the University of Virginia and later completed The Executive Program (TEP) at the Darden Graduate School of Business Administration.

Bill serves on multiple boards for the University of Virginia, including serving as former president of the Virginia Athletics Foundation Board of Trustees and as past president of the McIntire School of Commerce Advisory Board. He also is former chairman of the St. Margaret's School Board of Governors and serves on the finance committee of the Church Schools of the Diocese of Virginia. Bill is a founding member of the RVA 100, a youth philanthropic organization in Richmond, Virginia, that has raised over $300,000 for children in need in Central Virginia. Bill is a 2008 graduate of Leadership Metro Richmond (LMR) and a 2020 graduate of LEAD Virginia.
