

Teresa Stinson*Cadence Bank

Teresa is an Executive Managing Director and Executive Vice President for Florida Corporate Banking at Cadence Bank. She leads the teams and develops new business for Cadence Bank, which entered the Florida Market in 2012. Transactions include leading and participating in Senior Credit Facility Syndications, Direct to Commercial Client Lending, Financing Private Equity M&A, managing all aspects of the Florida Market Loan Portfolio and leading the teams to grow Cadence in Florida to average over $750MM in commitments. Participates in all aspects of the Company's growth to include budgeting, merger integration, new market expansion, acquisition development, credit policy, company culture, employee incentive campaigns, client product development, training/development of employees, Developed Business Case for Commercial Loan Operations Improvement Process, Launched Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Initiative and Alternative Investment Committee Member.

Teresa holds a BA from The University of Florida, an Executive MBA from Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), is a Founder and Past President of Voices for Children of Tampa Bay, 40 Under 40 Award Recipient by the Tampa Bay Business Journal and member of Leadership Tampa Alumni, Association for Corporate Growth, Women's Executive Leadership, CEO Council of Tampa Bay, Golden Triangle, Latino Corporate Directors Association and The University of Tampa College of Business Advisory Board.