

E. Wesley Hampp (Wes)
Holleway Capital Partners

Wes Hampp has over 20 years of lower middle market private equity and mezzanine experience. He is the co-founder of Holleway Capital Partners, a St. Louis based $75 million licensed SBIC private equity fund. Holleway acquires manufacturers and distributors of industrial and commercial products in the greater Midwest and South. Prior to co-founding Holleway Capital Partners, he spent ten years as a Managing Director with First Capital Partners, an Omaha-based junior capital fund, and the previous eight years with Capital For Business, a St. Louis based private equity fund. Wes has been involved in every aspect of sourcing, investing, board oversight and harvesting of lower middle market companies.

Wes earned a BSBA and an MBA from Washington University in St. Louis' Olin School of Business, holds the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation and resides in Leawood, Kansas.